Summer Camps 2023 – Tennisclub TC Schwalbach e.V. and Abdi Saleh

Multiple registrations are possible in principle, but may only be considered if the respective camps are not fully booked by single bookings.

The costs of the summer camps are precisely calculated due to the limited number of participants. The booking of a camp therefore obligates the participant to pay the full fee, even if the participant is not able to make full use of the camp. Refunds are not possible.

Even in the case of a cancellation, the obligation to pay the participation fee remains, unless a participant from the waiting list takes over the respective place.

The participation fees are to be transferred to the following bank account no later than July 14, 2023:

Nassauische Sparkasse IBAN: DE93 5105 0015 0997 0025 22

Account holder: Abdollah Saleh

Reason for payment: Name of the participant and indication of the camp week
(Example: Claudia Hochheimer / 1st camp week)

The registrations will be considered in the order of the registration date - if necessary with priority for club members.

If the maximum number of participants for a camp week is reached, registrations received after this date will be placed on a waiting list. In the order of registrations, participants will move up if bookings are cancelled.

We are looking forward to your registrations.
